

Sanctions Compliance Policy

Diane Lane-Hutchings
HR Manager

Each Vice President¹ or Global Director, as the case may be, is required before submitting an expression of interest or, if none is required, a proposal for a project to make sure that the country where the services are to be performed is not a country sanctioned by Canada. The relevant list of sanctioned countries can be found here.

If the country where the services are to be performed is a sanctioned country, the Vice President or the Global Director will refer the matter to the General Counsel for his opinion as to whether the expression of interest or proposal can nonetheless still be submitted.

This policy applies even where the proposed project is a regional project. In that case, the Vice President or the Global Director will make sure that no country in the relevant region has been sanctioned by Canada.

¹Inasmuch as their respective division is bidding for a project strictly within Canada, the United States or both countries, the Vice President, Canada, and the Vice President, United States, are exempt from the provisions of this policy.
